27th October 21- Primary English Network Hannah Cooper

This termly network meeting provides English subject leaders with the chance to work collaboratively with colleagues from other schools. By sharing ideas, discussing best practice and having a forum to discuss areas where progress or attainment is below expectations, leaders will discover ways of enhancing the outcomes of pupils at their own schools.

The focus of this session will be on the teaching of reading, and how to establish a detailed long- and medium-term plan.

2nd November 21 The principles of writing moderation – Train the Trainer with Mel Hendy

The aim of this session is for Trainers understand how to lead a professional discussion, encouraging teachers to articulate their understanding of standards while moderating systematically.
